Dual-walled and vacuum-insulated

BPA-free and made from food-grade stainless steel

Outside of bottle remains sweat-free

Sip and Stash

Consumers are busy and constantly on the run, but they're more health conscious than they've ever been and are looking for ways to make their lives easier. Whether it's a professional with a need to stash some quick cash or a busy mom looking for a convenient place for her keys while on the run, the Bindle Bottle is made for more than just drinking. The bottle has a liquid capacity of 24 fluid ounces and a water and scent-proof compartment that measures 3.3 inches deep and 3.2 inches wide for quick stashing. —T.H.
